Eastern Shore String Academy

The Eastern Shore String Academy is a training ensemble for intermediate level violin, viola, cello and bass students. The goal of the Eastern Shore String Academy is to build basic orchestral playing skills, audition techniques and string techniques.

Students interested in playing with the Eastern Shore String Academy should carefully read the proficiency requirements below and fill out the application form. The Eastern Shore String Academy Director may request that students play for them before acceptance into the group.

Meeting Time: Sunday, August 30, 2020-May 2021

6:00pm-7:15pm

Eastern Shore String Academy rehearsals take place at
St. Lawrence Catholic Parish 370 South Section Street,
Fairhope, Alabama 36532

Director, Jose Sunderland

The Mobile Symphony will comply with the guidelines of the CDC. Due to COVID-19 safety protocols, this school year class size will be limited. If in-person classes are suspended for any reason, Strings Academy will continue online.

String Academy Proficiency Requirements:

- At least 3 years of playing experience on their instrument
- Should be able to play 1 octave D, G and C Major Scales
- Private lessons are recommended
