

Announcing Mobile Symphony's 2021-2022 Season

This is truly a season to celebrate. We feature six remarkable classical concerts with four outstanding soloists. You'll want to add both of our special events to your membership. Many of you have already purchased Music City Hitmakers, and remember you save 20% on holiday tickets.

October 2 & 3, 2021

Celebrate! A Festive Season Opener

This year, a new season gives us more reasons than ever to celebrate! We open with remarkable violinist Bella Hristova performing Saint-Saens' Violin Concerto No. 3.

October 14, 2021

SPECIAL EVENT: Music City Hitmakers

We're going country with award-winning songwriters performing songs they penned for Nashville's most notable stars – all backed with our orchestra. If you haven't already, add this to your membership!

November 13 & 14, 2021

Major U.S. Premiere

Celebrated mandolin player Avi Avital performs the U.S. premiere of Jennifer Higdon's Mandolin Concerto, commissioned jointly by the Mobile Symphony, Munich Philharmonic and Chicago Philharmonic.

December 11 & 12, 2021

SPECIAL EVENT: Joy to the World!

Our annual Christmas concert is a Gulf Coast tradition. Plan to bring the family. Although this special concert is not part of your classical membership, you can easily add it and receive 20% off your tickets.

January 22 & 23, 2022

The Fireworks of Jupiter

If you were sad last season's Mozart concert was canceled, we'll make it up with Mozart's greatest symphonic work: the brilliant Jupiter Symphony. Also, Tchaikovsky's Rococo Variations, featuring cellist Jonathan Swensen.

March 12 & 13, 2022

Beethoven & Blue Jeans

It's time to dress down and leave uplifted as acclaimed pianist Charlie Albright returns to perform the Grieg Piano Concerto. And, we'll perform Beethoven's powerful Symphony No. 8!

April 2 & 3, 2022

Calm Seas

The USA Concert Choir joins us for a hidden Beethoven gem, Calm Sea and Prosperous Voyage. We feature Haydn's London Symphony. Performed in memory of Dr. Andrew Harper.

May 21 & 22, 2022

A John Williams Jubilee

This thrilling concert combines some of the best works of America's favorite composer. Music from Harry Potter, Raiders of the Lost Ark, Star Wars, E.T. and more. Performed in memory of Allan Rowe and Paul Low.

Phone
251-432-2010

Online
MobileSymphony.org

Address
257 Dauphin Street