NEW this summer!

MOBILE SYMPHONY CELLO ADULT ENSEMBLE

June – July 2021

The Mobile Symphony is uniquely positioned to play a leading role in providing innovative programming for our adult population by promoting the arts as a vehicle to a healthier life.

The MSO is offering any adult who plays the violoncello the opportunity to make music with others through adult ensembles guided by expert coaches and conductors.

To build community through the arts gives all people the opportunity to achieve their full creative potential, regardless of their age or ability.

This program is presented by the MSO Education department and includes group training and coaching in a participatory music program.
