Mobile Symphony Fiddle Club

The Mobile Symphony Fiddle Club taught by violinist and fiddler “Ms Annie” Young is made up of young string players who want to learn Celtic, Cajun, or American Fiddle styles in addition to their regular classes and/or private lessons.

A recorded audition is required, but no pressure! It is just to help Ms Annie select the right music for the group.

Fiddle students will learn tunes and techniques “by ear” from Ms. Annie during class. Recordings and sheet music will be shared with parents to help with practice at home. This class will build a foundation for playing music with others in Irish sessions, folk bands and with friends and family.

Come join the fun and start fiddling!

For questions and audition requirements please email Mobile Symphony Education Director Daniela Pardo at daniela@mobilesymphony.org
You can also contact Ms. Annie directly at fiddlelady07@gmail.com
